We are thrilled to announce that Chatia Shelby has been promoted to Senior Director of Human Resources and Talent Development.

Shelby is a dynamic HR professional who excels at striking a balance between meeting staff needs and ensuring the organization thrives for peak performance. With over a decade of expertise in employee relations, talent management, and HR analytics, she is both a strategic and innovative HR leader. Shelby embraces diversity, equity, and inclusion and embodies accountability, integrity, and trust to deliver top-notch HR services.

"Chatia is an incredible leader with a breadth of knowledge in human resources and talent development. We are deeply fortunate to have Chatia at the helm in Easterseals HR and as a member of the Senior Leadership Team," said President and CEO Sara Ray Stoelinga.

Shelby previously served as Interim Senior Director of Human Resources and Talent Development and prior to that, Human Resources Manager at Easterseals Serving Chicagoland and Greater Rockford. Before joining ECR, she spent almost a decade working in HR for SEIU Healthcare IL Benefit Funds and an additional four years in the finance department with the company.

Shelby earned her BS in business administration from Lewis University and graduated with an MBA in human resource management from the University of Phoenix.
