

Crain's honors Pamela Miranda as a 2025 Notable Nonprofit Board Leader

Dec 02, 2024

Crain's Chicago Business announced its honorees today, recognizing Pamela Miranda for her leadership as a member of the Easterseals Serving Chicagoland and Greater Rockford (ECR) Board of Directors.

Crain's Chicago Business announced its honorees today, recognizing Pamela Miranda for her leadership as a member of the Easterseals Serving Chicagoland and Greater Rockford (ECR) Board of Directors. Each individual featured by Crain's has demonstrated a deep commitment to their respective nonprofits in advancing the purpose and awareness of their organizations in the community.

Miranda, whose board service approaches eight years, has played a pivotal role in ECR's overall direction. In tandem with CEO & President Sara Ray Stoelinga and the full board, Miranda has been instrumental in advancing ECR's mission to further the lives of early learners and individuals of all abilities. She has also championed initiatives to create a broad, diverse board. Of her nomination, Miranda said:

"I feel very honored. Working alongside Sara and her dedicated team has been a very inspiring and rewarding experience for me. This acknowledgement has inspired me to continue working to strengthen our organization and make a meaningful impact on the lives of those we serve. We really bring hope, support, and transformation to families—not only our students. The whole family benefits from what we do."

Miranda will be honored in a special section of the December 2nd print issue and featured online with area executives who share this accomplishment.

Crain's Chicago Business provides news and analysis to deepen readers' understanding of the business landscape in metropolitan Chicago. It publishes a weekly print magazine with ongoing coverage at ChicagoBusiness.com.