Titan CEO and headline sponsor Wipfli LLP are pleased to announce that, once again, Sara Ray Hallman, President & CEO of Easterseals Serving Chicagoland and Greater Rockford (ECR), has been named to Chicago's Titan 100 list for 2026. The Titan 100 program recognizes Chicago's Top 100 CEOs & C-level executives—the area's most accomplished business leaders in their industry, demonstrating exceptional leadership, vision, and passion.

Collectively, the 2026 Chicago Titan 100 honorees and their companies generate more than $120 billion in annual revenue and employ over 207,000 individuals across the region and beyond, with more than half leading companies that exceed $35 million in annual revenue.

“I am honored and humbled to once again be among Chicago’s Titan 100 CEOs and C-level executives,” said Hallman. “This recognition is truly a reflection of the incredible team I have the honor of working with at Easterseals Serving Chicagoland & Greater Rockford and the communities we are privileged to serve. I look forward to continuing to connect and collaborate with this incredible group of Titan leaders. Collectively, we can continue to support the development and well-being of the communities in which we operate.”

Hallman was named Easterseals Serving Chicagoland and Greater Rockford's President and CEO in 2019 and has since played a critical role in the organization's turnaround, leading the rebuild of its operational infrastructure and laying the groundwork for a sustainable path forward. Hallman is also an Adjunct Professor in the Quinlan Graduate School of Business at Loyola University. Before joining Easterseals Serving Chicagoland and Greater Rockford, Hallman was the Sara Liston Spurlark Director of The University of Chicago Urban Education Institute (UEI), a non-profit organization that bridges education research and practice to foster greater equity and excellence in public schooling. She also served as a clinical professor on the University of Chicago's Committee on Education, and has written and spoken extensively on education policy.

"This year's Titans represent more than success; they embody resilience, purpose, and transformation," said Jaime Zawmon, President of Titan CEO. "Being a Titan is not a title; it is a mindset, a way of leading with courage, serving with integrity, and creating something that outlasts you. It is about lifting those around you and leaving a legacy that inspires others to rise. These leaders stand as proof that the future of business is driven by those who turn vision into lasting impact."

"On behalf of the partners and associates at Wipfli, we congratulate the 2026 Chicago Titan 100 honorees," said Gary Shutan, Partner at Wipfli. "We appreciate the lasting impact each leader has made, and continues to make, in building organizations of significance both in Chicago and abroad. Your ingenuity and creativity have set you apart, and the honor of being seen as an industry Titan is richly deserved."
