

Rhonda Robinson Named New Vice-President of Early Learning Services

Aug 15, 2023

We are thrilled to announce that Rhonda Robinson has been appointed our new Vice-President of Early Learning Services.

We are thrilled to announce that Rhonda Robinson has been appointed our new Vice-President of Early Learning Services after serving as our Senior Director of Human Resources.

"Rhonda brings extensive experience as an executive leader, deep knowledge of human resource policy, and a grounding in early learning practices and leadership to this position. Easterseals Serving Chicagoland and Greater Rockford is fortunate to have her taking on this important role," said President and CEO Sara Ray Stoelinga.

"Rhonda brings extensive experience as an executive leader, deep knowledge of human resource policy, and a grounding in early learning practices and leadership to this position. Easterseals Serving Chicagoland and Greater Rockford is fortunate to have her taking on this important role," said President and CEO Sara Ray Stoelinga.

Robinson has more than 12 years experience as a human resources professional and has an extensive employment background in corporate America as well as in non-profit organizations. Organizations she has worked for include FedEx Express, Catholic Charities of Chicago, and McDonald's Corporation. She enjoys coaching and mentoring leaders, as well as creating processes and systems for organizations.

Robinson has an MBA in business and a BA in organizational management from Concordia University Chicago. She is married to her best friend Dwaine and has two daughters, Brianna and Brittany.

"I'm thrilled to take on this role and help early learning services improve, expand, and grow in expertise. A lot of exciting work on the horizon," said Robinson.

Chatia Shelby will serve as the Interim Senior Director of Human Resources.