

Rockford IceHogs Players Meet with TAP Families

Jan 17, 2024

On January 15, the Rockford IceHogs' Kale Howarth (#45) and Bryce Kindopp (#82) met with several individuals with autism and their parents in advance of the Autism Awareness Night game this Saturday.

On January 15, the Rockford IceHogs' Kale Howarth (#45) and Bryce Kindopp (#82) met with several individuals with autism and their parents to learn about autism, The Autism Program \(TAP\) at Easterseals, and the importance of the Autism Awareness Night game THIS Saturday, January 21. The group played games and talked about their shared love of hockey. The meeting took place at LawnCare by Walter, the premium sponsor of the game. Check out some photos from the event.